

Intro:

E/G# - E<sup>2 no3</sup>/F# - B/D# - E
E/G# - E<sup>2 no3</sup>/F# - B - C#m

Verse 1:

You've got this feeling sound
Where everything brings ya down
I'd like to try and take a chance
To tell you it's not happenstance
B/D# E F#m A<sup>7</sup>/C#
That I love you, cause ya know it's true, but...

Chorus 1:

C#m B A E/G#
You dont need another love song
C#m B A E
To tell you how far you're gone
C#m B/D# A E/G# F#m A B
You just need someone to hug ya and say everything's ok

Verse 2:

Some days will go to fast
And some you'll wish you never had
And I know sometimes it's hard to see
When you compare your life to that of the movies
Cause ya know it's true, that I love you, but...

Chorus 2:

You dont need another love song
To tell you how far you're gone
You just need someone to hug ya and say everything's ok
Yeah, you don't need a million dollars
To try and change your current weather
You just need someone to hug ya and say everything's ok

Bridge part 1:

C#m

Bridge part 2:

C#m

E/G#

I hope ya know that there's a calm after every storm

C#m

E/G#

F#m

I hope ya see that it's about to break and there's nothing to morn

A F#m

A B

And that thorn I swear it won't hurt anymore

Chorus 2:

You dont need another love song

To tell you how far you're gone

You just need someone to hug ya and say everything's ok

Yeah, you don't need a super hero

To change you to a one from a zero

You just need someone to hug ya and say everything's ok

Everything's ok

Everything, it's ok
